

Annual Spring Concert

March 3, 4, and 5, at 7:00 pm

A Program of three works:

Caroline Goes to the Rodeo

An exuberant, red, white, & blue frolic of a ballet. Caroline and her friends attend a rodeo and enjoy square dancing, lassos, and encounter an angry bull. With wonderful, familiar western tunes, a good time is had by all!

Bach Concerto

A new original work by M.Y.B. faculty member Christopher Doyle showcases M.Y.B.'s pre-professional dancers in an abstract expression of Bach's beautiful music.

Les Sylphides

One of the oldest 'romantic' ballets – originally performed in the early 1900's. This was first staged by M.Y.B. in 1985 with then student, Julie Kent, now a prima ballerina with American Ballet Theatre (photo).

Les Sylphides is considered one of the hallmarks of a classical repertoire and M.Y.B. is excited to be presenting it again.
