Maryland Youth Ballet is very excited to announce the formation of the new MYB Studio Company! This new company, just for young dancers between the ages of 15 and 20, will help bridge the gap between student and professional by maximizing personal coaching and performing. Dancers, chosen by audition or invitation, will learn and perform both classical repertoire and original choreography and will be paid for all Studio Company performances. All dancers must participate in the MYB Professional Division Program.

The Studio Company will be directed by Christopher Doyle. Mr. Doyle received his training at Boston Ballet School, San Francisco Ballet School and from Hae Shik Kim in Fresno California. He was a member of the Washington Ballet for nine years where he danced many principal roles. Other companies he has performed with include the Milwaukee Ballet, Pacific Northwest Ballet and the National Ballet of Korea. He also served as artistic director for the Fresno Ballet from 1994 to 2005.
