

Maryland Youth Ballet's 2017

Nutcracker Tea

What is it?

The Nutcracker Tea is a chance for our youngest Nutcracker fans to meet some of their favorite characters from the ballet. There will be a photo opportunity, crafts, and light refreshments, plus an exclusive performance by the Sugar Plum Fairy.

Who can attend? Can I bring a friend/neighbor/cousin...?

The Tea is intended for Nutcracker fans ages 2-5 (Dance with Me, Little Dancer, and Creative Movement). Guests should be MYB students or the guest of an MYB student (limit 1). No dance experience is necessary.

When and where is it?

The tea parties will be Saturday, November 25th from 10:00am-11:00am.

What is the cost?

Registration is $20 per ticket, which will allow one child and an accompanying adult.

How do I register?

You may sign up online or at the office by November 19th. You will need to fill out a registration form and pay at that time to reserve your spot.

Do parents have to stay?

Yes, an adult is required to accompany tea guests. This will also give you the chance to use your own camera for photo opportunities with the characters.

Can boys come?

Absolutely. The party is centered entirely on the Nutcracker ballet and is not gender-specific.

What do the guests need to wear?

Guests may wear whatever they would like. The guests will not be dancing but will have the chance to take their picture with the Sugar Plum.

Is there a ballet class?

No, the guests will not be dancing.

Is there a performance?

Yes, the Sugar Plum Fairy will perform her variation for the Tea guests.

For any other inquiries, you may email Ms. Kristin at Kristin.MYB@gmail.com